Drink, dance and enjoy the night with Summer Festival Fridays at the Sangre de Cristo Arts Center

(PUEBLO) - The Sangre de Cristo Arts Center will host their annual Summer Festival Fridays bringing great, new and local bands to this season's line-up. Starting Fridays, July 10 through Friday, August 7, from 6 to 10p.m., be sure to check out this funky, fun event!

Kicking off the series on July 10, will be the local band Bad Habitz, bringing a Tejano and funk flavor to the stage. The Real Deal will perform July 17, performing Motown and R&B jams. On July 24, the Colorado Spring's band, Ginger's Hotter, will rock the dance floor with rock and pop music. Pueblo's hottest band, Martini Shot, will get people moving and grooving on July 31. Playing the last Festival Friday of the summer will be the New Mexico, R&B and pop band, Sorela, featuring two hot female lead singers.

Come early for happy hour specials from 6 to 7 p.m. Find 2-for-1, 12 ounce beers, wells and wine. Starting at 7 p.m., the bands will play until 10 p.m. on the Festival Fridays stage where there is plenty of room for partying and dancing on the dance floor below. Enjoy fun, food, drinks and great music throughout the night!

Tickets for this summer's Festival Fridays are $4 in advance and $5 at the gate, and can be purchased at the Sangre de Cristo Arts Center box office. Feel free to order tickets by calling 719-295-7222.
